Annual Spring Gardening School, yes Spring...

We have been experiencing record low temperatures so Cornell Cooperative Extension's 27th Annual Spring

2008 Gardening School

Gardening School can't come a minute too soon this year!

This annual event offers a variety of classes taught by master gardeners and Cornell Cooperative Extension educators. Topics including garden design, container gardening, home composting, floral design, and shade gardening. The $55 registration fee ($50 early registration) includes continental breakfast, a box lunch, door prizes, free soil tests, and an abundant plant sale and plant diagnostic clinic.

Register for one of three locations for these all-day gardening extravaganzas: April 4 at Riverhead Middle School, April 18 at Ward Melville High School in Setauket, or April 25 at Bellport High School. The hours are 8:30a.m. to 4:30p.m. each day. Think "spring" and join other gardeners at the 2009 Spring Gardeners School for a day of immersion in one of Long Island's favorite pastimes.

Pre-registration is required and these sessions fill quickly; call early for reservations to avoid disappointment. For more information or to register, call Caroline Kiang at (631) 727-7850, ext. 337 or ctk3@cornell.edu, or go to www.cce.cornell.edu/suffolk.
